MALLEE DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SERVICES

MALLEE SOCIAL WORK FAMILY VIOLENCE COLLABORATIVE GRADUATE PROGRAM:

The Rural and Regional Family Violence Social Work Graduate Program provides a meaningful, challenging and rewarding graduate year for new and recent graduates. Graduates will be part of a collaborative program across the Mallee, with partner agencies (SCHS, MDVS, MDAS) supporting graduates to receive a unique and comprehensive Family Violence sector experience during this graduate year.

The Program will support graduates as they transition into the family violence sector through:

- monthly half-day Communities of Practice sessions, focusing on contemporary family violence practice.
- training and professional development opportunities and graduate health, safety and wellbeing supports.
- a reduced caseload to allow time to attend training, professional development, supervision, and mentoring sessions.

These positions are for 12 months, with the opportunity of further employment following successful completion of the graduate program.

Applications must address Key Selection Criteria.
